

From Fred Horn

In the last issue of the Quarterly, Jim Polczynski's asks for games about atomic bombs. In 1946, a Dutch firm manufactured such a game:

<https://www.spellenlab.be/speldatabase/40586>

<https://www.spellenlab.be/speldatabase/10413>

They even made Holland a country that owns these bombs! A little bit of "overacting" to place Holland in between these 'World-power' countries.

AGPI

